—, —, —. Earl, John, Sr., of New Hanover Twsp., Burlington Co. will of. Wife, Abigail, $1,000; also rents and profits of lands devised to two sons, Charles and Daniel until they are 21, to enable her to bring up the younger children. All this in lieu of dower. Whereas my former wife, Abigail (daughter of William L. Smith) had land in Burlington Co., which descended to her children, William, John, Elizabeth and Mary Earl, subject to my life estate therein, I hereby give said lands to two sons, Wililam and John and direct that they release to each other, and in my bequest to my daughters, Elizabeth and Mary Earl, I have compensated them for their share thereof. Son, William L. Earle, lands in Northampton, near Mount Holly, which was given to his mother by her grandfather, Daniel Doughty; also piece of land adjoining same (12 acres); also ½ part of pine lands and lands adjoining the Mills and ½ part of saw mill (which lands belonged to my former wife). Son, John Earl, land given to me by my father, which he purchased of Jno. Hough; also land on Juliustown Mount; also other ½ of pine lands and ½ of grist mill and saw mill; also ¼ part of Forge, and he is to release to his brother, William, all his estate right in lands which belonged to his said mother and herein given to his brother, William. Likewise, William is to release to John his estate right in lands herein devised to John. Daughters, Elizabeth and Mary Earl, each

$4,000, they releasing to their brothers, William and John, their right in their mother's estate. Daughter, Charlotte Earl, $2,000, when 18, or in case of her death before that time, to be divided between all my living children. Sons, Charles and Daniel, as tenants in common, plantation whereon I dwell, purchased of Restore Shinn; also tract left me by my father, adjoining Joseph Earl; also two other pieces adjoining same, purchased of Thomas Swaine and Jacob Heister; also cedar swamp purchased of John Tonkin, near Hanover Furnace; when Charles is 21. If either of said sons should die without issue, survivor to inherit the Shinn tract and residue to be divided between all children. Sons, William and John, all shares of proprietary rights given me by my father; also residue of real and personal estate. The greater portion is given to my older children because their mother brought considerable property to me and my younger children have expectations from their mother. Executors—sons, John and William. Witnesses—Anthony J. Earle, Thomas R. Lacey, Richard Campion. Proved Oct. 4, 1813.

1810, Jan. 27. Harper, Henry, Sr., of Upper Freehold Twsp., Monmouth Co.; will of. Wife [unnamed], £1,000; bed and bedding, plate, tables, looking glass, etc., to furnish 2 rooms for her use; also a black girl named Clara; also to have possession & use of farm for 2 years until son, Charles, takes possession. Son, Charles, the farm on which I now live and he to pay £6,000 in 2 years, that is, £1,000 to wife and £600 to granddaughter, Mary Ann Horseful, and residue to my daughters, Maria, Ann, and Elizabeth, equally. Granddaughter's share to be put to interest until she is 21. If son, Charles should die, or not fulfill the condition, said farm to be sold by executors and money arising divided between wife, granddaughter and daughters as named above. If he should carry out bequests as directed, his indebtedness to me is thereby discharged. Son, William, the farm on which Jacob Wickoff now lives commonly called the Jackson farm, said farm to be rented out until William is of age, and from money arising, executors are to pay to my son, Henry, £50 yearly, and residue to be applied to William's education, and when he is 21, he is to continue the said payment to Henry. In case of William's death, the farm to be sold, and proceeds divided between 3 daughters and wife. Son, Henry, rent of the house and lot called the Ogburn lot, where George Meirs now lives, for term of twenty years. At end of said 20 years (or at death of said Henry, if that should occur first), said farm to son, William. It is the will of myself and my wife, as executors of the will of her father, James Jackson, that moneys due us, as such "as aforesaid from my sons, George and Charles, be and the same are hereby considered as paid and discharged". Also that the legacies given by said will to my children, Sarah, Maria, Ann and Elizabeth or their representatives, be considered discharged. 1813, Feb. 11. Shippen, Joseph, of Oxford Twsp., Sussex Co. Int. Inventory, $645.99; made by John Summers, George Butler. Sworn to by William I. Shippen, Adm'r, Feb. 17, 1813. File 1383 S.

1804, May 17. Shiras, Alexander, of Burlington Co., shopkeeper; will of. Eldest son, George Bartram Shiras, (when he comes of age) all that lot, with house and buildings thereon, which I bought of Edward Black and wife, at the corner of High & Mill Sts., in Mount Holly. Son, Alexander, house and lot I bought of George Bartram and his mother, adjoining the Great Bridge in Mount Holly; also meadow and buildings thereon which I bought of Henry Paxson, adjoining Charles Heughs, John Bispham and others, in Mount Holly. To Hannah Williams, for her faithful service, especially to my late wife, Martha, the interest of £100 if ever she fails to gain for herself a comfortable living; also the bed and bedding, and drawers that my wife lent her; also 4 rush bottom chairs, kitchen shovel and tongs, iron pot, tea kettle, low kitchen table, 6 pewter spoons, 6 forks and knives, 1 pair flatirons, a tub and pail, for life and at her death said articles to revert to my estate. My books (of which a list may be found in my large memorandum book) to be divided equally between two sons. Alexander to have my long small bore gun. Sons to take what they want of my wearing apparel, and of what is left, my brother, Peter Shiras, is to have his choice. If any is left, that is for John Young. My shop, goods and other moveables to be sold and proceeds divided into 3 shares (as any other moneys due me); two shares thereof to son, Alexander and the other share to son, George B., when of age, the money to earn interest until that time. My reason for sharing money as above is that I believe the property given to George B., is more valuable than that given to Alexander. If both sons should die before coming of age and without issue, Alexander's share of land to Alexander Shiras Van Pelt (son of Dr. Peter Van Pelt), and the other share of land to the Corporation of St. Andrews Church in Mount Holly in trust. The interest or rent of said house and lot to be applied on minister's salary. Nevertheless, my brother is to have the profits of said estates during his lifetime, in case both of my sons die as abovesaid. Also, in such case, the money willed to said Alexander, shall go to the children of my brother-in-law, Benjamin Clark, i.e., £100 to his eldest daughter, Martha, and residue divided equally between her and the rest; and the moneys willed to George B., to my cousin, Margaret Thomson, whom I left in Peterhead in Great Britain, and if she be dead, leaving no issue, said sum to Magistrate of Town of Peterhead, in trust for educating poor children. It is my intention that the Hatter's Shop and lot bought of Henry Paxson is to be included in my bequest to my son, George B. Executors—brother-in-law, Joseph Clark, of Philadelphia, merchant, and my late wife's cousin, Samuel Clark, of Mount Holly. Witnesses—James Coppuck, Francis Austin, Peter Shiras.

1811, Feb. 3. Codicil. Son, Alexander, tract of woodland which I bought of executors of Dr. John Ross and said son Alexander to be co-executor to my will, making void the appointment of Samuel Clark as executor thereof. To Frances Clark (daughter of Ephraim), and to Joanna Shiras (wife of my son, George B.), and to Hannah Williams, all wearing apparel of my late wife, the distribution to be made by Frances and Hannah. Witnesses—John Neale, James Coppuck, Peter Shiras. Proved Feb. 8, 1811. File 12541 C.

1807, May 25. Shirts, Abraham, of Lebanon Twsp., Hunterdon Co.; will of. Wife, Alche, use of homestead farm and plantation in Lebanon where I now live; also personal estate and wearing apparel during her life. Grandson, Abraham Shirts (son of my son, Michael, lately deceased), the plantation as above, after decease of wife; on express condition that he pay to his 2 brothers, Peter and Jacob, \$2,400, that is to each, \$1,200, in 9 equal payments, beginning as each arrives to 21 years. Son, Peter, farm in Tucksbury (Hunterdon Co.); also my wearing apparel; also  $\frac{1}{2}$  of personal estate that my wife dies possessed of. The other half of same to Catherine Shirts (widow of my son, Michael), and to her 2 daughters, Catherine and Alche. Executors—Grandson, Abraham (son of Michael), and Jacob Runkle, both of Lebanon. Witnesses—Jacob Johnson, Derick W. Tinbrook, Abraham Wagoner. Proved May 28, 1810.

1811, Jan. —. Smith, Jasper, late of Flemington, but now of Maidenhead Twsp., Hunterdon Co. attorney and counsellor at Law; will of. Executors to place tombstone of marble at my grave. Whereas my father died suddenly in the year 1754, about the time I had entered college, in Newark, and not being the eldest son, I inherited by law, none of his real estate but only a share of moveable estate, with which by prudent management of my mother and her eldest son, I took my first degree at Princeton in 1754. By rule of Supreme Court, I had to study law for 5 years but was admitted 5 months sooner. In about 2 years I married and had one child, which died in about 3 weeks, and the wife about 13 months after my marriage. I married again but had no children. This wife also died after a few years, after which I married a third time. To trustees of Maidenhead Presbyterian Church of which I am a member and Trustee, that plantation whereon I now live (as by deed from John Anderson, Esq.), except  $\frac{1}{2}$  acre where Benjamin Smith, Jr., now lives; also a woodlot purchased of Israel Stevens; but not to be possessed by said trustees until after death of my brother, Israel Smith, and my wife ceases to be my widow. They are not to cut any timber for rails for 30 years, nor sell any wood nor to sell the same unless to purchase a more valuable place. To wife, Anne, during widowhood, use of house, garden and buildings as used by me, all household furniture of every kind, riding chair, all cows, the black boy, Charles, to be freed when 30 and black girl freed at 25; also \$300 yearly, and a horse of her choice. If she have a child by me, she is to support it until 8 or 10 years of age. If she marries again, all above bequests to cease and she shall have \$1,000, 2 beds and bedding; also a bureau, 2 looking glasses, and \$100 in household goods as she chooses, in lieu of dower. Trustees of said Presbyterian Church to have \$20 yearly until they have possession of my plantation. My books (including 2 Quarto Bibles), to remain in house. To executors, in trust, the plantation whereon my brother, Israel, lives and formerly owned, for use and benefit of said brother and his wife, during their lives but nothing to be at his disposal. To sister, Catherine Stevens, \$60 yearly during life. To the Rev. Mr. Isaac B. Brown, \$100 for a mourning cloak for himself and his wife, if (as now) he is a settled minister at Maidenhead. To sister, Catherine Stevens, "Mother", Waters Smith, Israel Smith, and Benjamin Smith, each \$60 and to my wife, Anne, \$50 to purchase mourning clothes. To Trustees of Princeton College, \$400 for promoting real religion in educating some pious youth for the Gospel ministry. My wife, Anne, to dispose of my former wife's clothing as she thinks proper. My clothing to my brothers, equally. To brothers, Waters and Benjamin, each \$500 for their care in taking care of my estate. To Benjamin Smith, Jr., the lot whereon he lives. All residue of estate to any child or children my wife may have by me, but if no child, or children, then residue as follows: to Benjamin Smith, Jr., \$500, lot of land in the Great Meadows (6 acres); to Israel Smith, Jr., \$500; to Elizabeth Smith, his sister, \$200; to Theodosia Smith (daughter of Benjamin, Jr.), \$100, when 18; to Joshua Brown Smith, \$100 when 21; to Thomas Stevens and Israel Stevens, each \$200 and residue to brother, Benjamin. Executors—brother, Waters, and Benjamin Smith, or if they should not live, then Israel Swan and Caleb Smith Green. Witnesses—Joseph W. Vancleve, Chatty Vancleve, Benjamin Vancleve.

II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

NOTE.—The names of testators, intestate persons or wards, printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, as a rule. Where maiden names can be ascertained from the body of the will, they are included.

Where surnames in common use today, or at least with well-known spellings, are unusually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index, to facilitate reference. To a lesser degree the same rule has been applied to Christian names.
